Quotation Clinic

Fix and integrate. NBE3U, Behind the Image, Lesson 12

Name: _____ Date: _____

Fix the punctuation or integration in each sentence.

1. Christine says, our law is honor, which challenges Charlie.

2. Scott calls the baby “the latest promise of her nation’s doom”.

3. “Nor even love can make a slave of a red girl”. This shows her strength.

4. The ladies called her “just the sweetest wildflower,” Johnson's narrator disagrees.

Integrate this quotation into a sentence of your own: “an ordinary, pale, dark girl” (Johnson).

© 2026 K9solutions

Edit and Plan

Grammar, terms and next steps. NBE3U, Behind the Image, Lesson 12

Name: _____ Date: _____

Error	Corrected sentence
The images in Curtis's book shows a vanishing past.
Scott and Johnson both wrote about Indigenous women, but he made them silent.
In the poem, Scott described the baby and calls him doomed.
Many Eskimo artists sell prints in Kinngait.
Canada's Aboriginal peoples have many cultures.

Terms check on my own draft: list two words I changed and why.

Presentation plan: my image or media text, my partner, and the Indigenous creator whose work answers it:

© 2026 K9solutions